75-MILLION POUNDS NEEDED FOR POOL

Four More Counties Have Reached 75 Per Cent Goal—Big Crowd At Meeting

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 22.—More than one hundred million pounds of the burley tobacco crop had been signed to the marketing plan of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association when the greatest tobacco conference in the history of the state adjourned here Friday, after Aaron Sapiro, of California, delivered an inspiring address in which he congratulated the workers on what they had accomplished and urged them to redouble their efforts to sign up within the next three weeks the 75,000,000 pounds necessary to the success of the pool.

The ball room at the Phoenix Hotel was filled with chairs and every available inch of space taken when Vice Chairman James C. Stone called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock.

A call of the counties showed that besides the ten previously reported as having raised their quotas—Fayette, Woodford, Bourbon, Bath, Carrollton, Montgomery, Lincoln, Nicholas, Spencer and Fleming—Clark, Jessamine, Nelson and Oldham had raised their quotas and that a number of others are still working and endeavoring to obtain all of the tobacco grown in their borders.

Judge Bingham, in his address presenting Mr. Sapiro to the conference, said that "though Mr. Sapiro was in demand in all parts of the United States at $1,000 a day, he had come to Kentucky to help in this work without even a guarantee of his expenses," and that he showed he had a "great heart as well as a great mind and that money was not everything to him."

Organization Manager Joseph Passonau told the growers that the goal for each of the counties to raise its quota would be sent to the chairman within the next few days.

Cheers and handclaps greeted Judge Robert W. Bingham, whom Mr. Stone said that with such a group of men as was present "anything can be done, and we are going to put this thing over."

Judge Bingham said "this must be a great day for Aaron Sapiro, as he saw coming to fruition the goal he had planted." Judge Bingham told of his talk with Bernard Baruch about Mr. Sapiro, who had agreed to come to Kentucky "without even his expenses paid, though Mr. Baruch had told him that Sapiro was a $1,000 a day man."

Those from Madison county who attended the meeting were: County Chairman T. S. Burnam, C. F. Chenault, W. O. Burke, R. E. Turley, L. H. Neale, M. F. Arluckle, Paul Burnam, William Arluckle, and T. D. Chenault.

NAVY MAN IS AFTER BIG GAME

(By Associated Press)

Shanghai, China, Sept. 8 (by Mail)—Commander E. H. Cope, of the U. S. Navy, who has held the post of paymaster at Shanghai for the past several years, is carrying out a wholly novel purpose in connection with a big game hunt that is to precede his return to America for a new assignment, as he has been transferred. Having sailed from Shanghai in August, he is going after big game in Indo-China, and he intends, he said before he sailed, to shoot a tiger with a revolver. Commander Cope has long been known as one of the best, if not the best, revolver shot in the United States Navy. He has captured virtually all the trophies for revolver shooting in the Far East.

Admiral Beatty Arrives On Liner Aquitania

New York, Oct. 21.—Escorted by a squadron of destroyers the liner Aquitania, bearing Admiral Earl Beatty, of the British navy, arrived here today. He will be the guest of the American Legion and will address the Kansas City Convention. Beatty's real mission is to serve as adviser to the British delegation at the disarmament conference.

FIVE IN ONE AT BEREA COLLEGE

Berea, Oct. 22.—Primary school members well out of their teens, as well as grown and reverend seniors in college, most of them younger than some of the pupils just learning to read, are one of the seemingly paradoxical features of Berea College. It is one of the few institutions of learning in the land in which a student running from the rudiments to an A. B. degree, and also one of the few colleges where a grown but uneducated man or woman may begin at the beginning.

There are five schools in Berea College. The most interesting is the Foundation School, open to students from fifteen years up. As the name implies, it starts from the foundation, welcoming to its precincts older as well as younger students who have never had a chance to study.

The Academy is the equivalent of the usual preparatory school or high school course, which gets ready for college those students who wish to continue further than the primary grades.

The Vocational School brings to the students a knowledge of pursuits which they may desire to use in their choice of a life work. Shops, a herd of cattle, an experimental farm, a hospital for courses in nursing, and other equipment are ready for vocational school students.

The College itself carries students from the Academy to their degrees of A. B. and is the equal of any College course in the South. Many of its graduates return to their mountain homes as teachers at graduation.

The Normal School is used for the training of students as teachers and gives a certificate for this purpose. Many of the school-teachers in the mountain districts are Berea's product. With these five schools ready for the mountain boy or girl, Berea College is able to perform a duty to education with unique chances of service.

The development of the five schools is an outgrowth of Berea's desire to be everything to the mountain people who depend upon it. It could do this only by being ready to give to all who asked anything that was desired in the way of courses or teaching. That the scheme is a success is shown by the fact that in the year just completed 2,560 students passed through the ever-open doors of Berea.

With an ideal situation, a huge clientele to draw from and the good will of the mountain people, but one thing has handicapped Berea—the lack of money. Its friends have been many, and new and much-needed equipment and buildings have appeared as if by magic. But the old methods of raising money no longer suffice to meet the rapidly growing demands, so Berea is taking part in a campaign to be known as the Berea Necessity Fund. The sum being sought is $1,000,000, and the acquisition of it will relieve emergency conditions of overcrowding, provide equipment and increase faculty salaries.

Ex-Service Men Here

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. O'Neal and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fryberger and Mr. John E. Strauss, all of Akron, Ohio, arrived in Richmond Thursday night after several days hike. Mr. O'Neal and Mr. Fryberger are both ex-service men and stated to a representative of the Daily Register that they are looking for employment and will be in the city until Saturday morning. Any help the public may give or any information in regard to a job will be appreciated by them. They are Chief of Police Claude Devore, whose guests they were at the lodge rooms, and whose courtesy and hospitality they greatly appreciated.

MADISON HI GOES DOWN IN DEFEAT

Purple and White Warriors Lose To Hustonville Team By Score of 3 to 0

The Purple and White clad warriors from Madison Hi went down in defeat on the Normal Field before the Hustonville team by the score of 3 to 0. The locals played hard and went down fighting. The three points were inflicted upon the locals by the educated toe of Sam Reid, the former wearer of Madison colors. After several attempts to carry the ball over Madison's line while on the five yard line, the Hustonville boys decided to try for a field goal. Adams held the ball and Reid booted the pigskin between the goal posts. This was the extent of their scoring, which was enough, as the Madison boys could not score in any quarter.

Madison's only chance to score was spoiled by the timekeeper who called time for the half with the Madison lads within 20 yards of Hustonville's line. As the ball was started rolling in the second half with a kick-off, the locals lost their only chance to score.

Sam Reid did not show up as well as some of the local fans expected him to, as he fumbled the ball twice in very close stages of the game. The fans "road" him but could not keep him from booting the ball between the posts for the winning points.

Gann, the Hustonville full back, played the stellar game for the visitors. He was in the play all the time and circled the ends for good gains several times. This had a nose that protected his face and also bore the blunt of the Madison attack. Adams at quarterback position, also distinguished himself by some excellent playing.

The main cause of Madison's undoing was the fine interference that the Hustonville boys worked. They had three men in front of the runner at all stages of the game which led them to their success in getting the ball close enough to local's goal to boot it over.

Normal Hi plays Hustonville at Hustonville one day next week. The line-up:

WELCH BUYS TWO STORES AT BEREA

The Berea Citizen had the following this week:

The John W. Welch Company has just purchased the two stores of Hensley & Davidson, to take effect November 1. Mr. Welch sold these stores of Hensley and Davidson in July, 1920. The contents of the grocery, meat market, hardware, feed and seed departments, and these added to the dry goods, ladies' and gents' furnishings, shoe and ready-to-wear departments, which Mr. Welch bought back in May of this year, really puts him back in Berea with a real store and a chance to do some more big things. It is understood that the same company known as the John W. Welch Co. now owns and operates the Richmond-Welch store and their plans look to the opening of quite a chain in Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mrs. T. N. Baker, of Macon, Ga., is the guest of her brother, Prof. H. H. Brock.

REAL OPPORTUNITY KNOCKING AT DOOR

Two Automobiles Can Be Won By a Real Worker Entering Today—Don't Delay

Get on the right side in the subscription drive. The race for these valuable and desirable prizes offered by this paper is just getting a good start, many of the long list of nominees whose friends recommend them for their energy and all round ability, are hesitating and so far only a small proportion of this long list has actually gone to work. Some sage has said, "He who hesitates is lost," but in this case the nominees won't be lost—he will win—merely get a slow start and then require a greater effort to win. But win he can if he will take his subscription book and get busy right now. We have known many workers to get started when a contest was nearly half over and win out with flying colors. That same thing can be done in this contest if the same quality is in the heart and backbone of the worker. We believe the right kind of backbone grows right here in this county.

GLOBE TROTTER AND PROFESSOR

Of History at the University of Kansas in Winter, Returns from Alaskan Trip

(By Associated Press)

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 22.—Globe trotter in the summer and professor of history at the University of Kansas in the winter is the program followed by Prof. David L. Patterson, who returned the middle of September from a three month trip to Alaska. Summer before he circled South America, visiting a score of the cities along the west coast and back along the east coast after a trip across the Andes. Two summers before that, in the early days of the World War, he visited the battle fronts of Europe as a war correspondent for an American newspaper.

On all these trips Professor Patterson observed closely the conditions of the countries through which he traveled, and from the South American and the European trips brought back large numbers of representative newspapers for his library. His early newspaper training impelled him on his Alaskan trip, to note the great forests of spruce, as yet practically untouched.

The greatest of these Alaskan forests, said Professor Patterson are in the southeastern part. They are controlled through the United States forest service and but two permits to paper pulp companies have been issued. These forests are extensive, and need never be exhausted if properly safeguarded, Professor Patterson said, for they form a second growth in thirty years.

Professor Patterson's Alaskan trip combined all sorts of transportation, including the Alaskan Railroad now being constructed by the United States government—river steamer and Pacific liner, as well as plain "mushing" as in the gold-rush days. His trip carried him through the Altic Lake country of British Columbia and as far as Dawson, Yukon territory.

JAPAN HAS MORE MEN THAN WOMEN

Tokio, Japan, Sept. 11 (by Mail)—Japan has 200,000 more men than women, according to the revised official census figures just published. The total population is placed at 55,963,053. The total number of households in Japan is estimated at 11,223,053, Tokyo leading with 456,823.

At present the 83 cities of Japan contain 18 per cent of the total population. The average ratio of male and female population in the urban districts is 100 women to 98.7 men. The total population of the city of Tokio has decreased by about 190,000 since 1918. A decrease of about 80,000 in Kioto since 1918 has brought that city below the rank of Kobe while Nagoya has surpassed Yokohama in recent years.

NORMAL HIGH BEATS MIDDLESBORO

Normal Hi defeated the fast Middlesboro foot ball team at Middlesboro Friday by a score of 7 to 0. William Crutcher scored the only touchdown for the locals on a center buck. Coach Hembree goes to Williamsburg Saturday and takes some of the High School stars with him. The Middlesboro team never threatened to score and the Normal boys had the ball within a yard of the goal when the final whistle blew. Big Four Chiefs In Conference Discussing Labor Board Order—Operators To Quit Chicago, Oct. 22.—Federal shop crafts, comprising six hundred thousand men, or one-fourth of the railroad workers of America, today decided they will not strike.

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—Four of the "big five" railroad transportation chiefs are in conference here today, discussing the citation for them to appear before the Railway Labor Board in Chicago next Wednesday, and general matters pertaining to the strike. Copies of the citation were received here today, but elicited no comment.

Regarding the International and Great Northern strike, President Lee, of the trainmen's organization, merely said "the matter is out of my hands."

Telegraphers Will Join Brotherhoods

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Just as the Federal Railway Labor Board went into session today word was received that the order of Railway Telegraphers had decided to join the brotherhoods and quit work if the strike becomes effective. President Manion, of the telegraphers, said the purpose of the action was to compel a restoration of wage decreases made effective on railroads July 1st, last. He said the telegraphers will strike on the same railroads and on the same dates named in the strike order of other transportation organizations. The Labor Board was without advice about the International and Great Northern strike in Texas. The board, however, discussed what action it shall take for violation of yesterday's board order to the unions to preserve status quo.

Vote 'Ne' on Second Amendment

A writer in the LaGrange New Era gives some enlightening information as to the working of proposed constitutional amendment, which is designed to make flexible ten per cent of the state school fund. What he says about Oldham county will apply equally as well in Madison county. It's worth reading, anyway, and studying carefully before the voters go to the polls to vote on those constitutional amendment on November 8. It follows:

The second school amendment provides that not more than ten per cent of the Public School funds be distributed other than upon the per capita basis. In other words, ten per cent will be released from the Constitutional restrictions and this means that it will be put under the control of the State Board of Education, or virtually under the control of the State Superintendent.

This is the amendment that seems to us to be more dangerous of the two. Advocates of the amendment cry "Take the office of State Superintendent out of politics," and in this manner have succeeded in drawing the attention of voters from the second amendment wherein the real danger lies. Many objections can be made but in this article we intend to mention only two.

The first is political. Amendment provides that one-tenth of the general school fund shall virtually be placed in the hands of the State Superintendent to do with as he sees fit. This appears all right on the surface, but isn't it possible for an ambitious man to spend this in such a way as to build for himself a political machine? Isn't it possible for an unscrupulous man to spend it carelessly and without obtaining the desired end—the betterment of Kentucky's educational condition?

Now the second amendment provides that one-tenth of general fund be taken out before any money is refunded to the counties on the per capita basis. So aking the figures given above as the amount Oldham county pays for common schools and taking one-tenth of it, we find that $1-359.52 more will be taken from Oldham county and given to other counties, making a grand total of $7,525.18 from which the county never derives any benefit. In other words, Oldham county now contributes 35 per cent of school tax to other counties and yet she is asked to contribute 45 per cent —or, stating it in another way, he receives from the state under the present system only 65 per cent of the money she pays to the state for school purposes, but under the proposed amendment she is asked to decrease this amount by 10 per cent and be satisfied

SHE TOOK HER FRIEND'S ADVICE

Now is in the Best of Health Because she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Mich.—"I was not feeling well for several years and never was able to eat any breakfast and always complained of a headache or tired feeling which at times required me to stop my work and rest. I have never had a physician and never took any medicine for it until yours was recommended to me by a neighbor whom I used to visit frequently. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am in the best of health and enjoy doing my work every moment of the day. It surely put life and "zip" into my system."—Mrs. L. M. DARRAS, 46 Howard

St., Detroit, Michigan.

It is not always in business that a woman is forced to give up her work on account of ill health. It is quite as often the woman who does her own work at home. When backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, when the bearing-down sensation attacks you, when you are nervous and blue, the one great help for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

tions? We do not think it wise to put approximately $400,000 in the hands of one man to spend annually as he may direct. Seems to us that a man could make himself a Governor or United States Senator with that amount of money to spend, if he were so inclined. Incidentally, this is why Supt. Colvin is charged with gubernatorial aspirations.

Our second objection is purely local, touching as it does every child and taxpayer in Oldham county. Are you willing that the school term be shortened one month in this county that the terms may be lengthened in counties with lower assessments? Are teachers in Oldham county willing to have their salaries reduced and yet be required to teach 7 months or a 6 months' salary? If the term here is not shortened or the teachers' salaries not reduced are you willing to add an additional tax to the present burdensome ones now paid? Do the patrons of the schools want the salaries of the teachers reduced or the school term shortened? We do not think they do. Then what are you going to do about it?

Let us submit a few figures, or they will prove our statements. According to figures obtained from the office of Sheriff assidy he collected last year in Oldham county for state purposes

$5,881.57. This amount divided by 40 cents on the dollar (state tax) gives $8,970.392, the taxable basis or the assessed valuation of Oldham county for state purposes.

Now the state appropriates 26 cents of this 40-cent levy for educational purposes, but only 18 cents is used for the common schools, the balance going to the State University, the Normal schools, etc. An 18 1-2 cent levy on $8,970.392 will produce $16-

95.22, and this is the amount

There has never been a time in the history of our store when we have not taken full advantage of wholesale market conditions. Our Ready-to-wear buyers in New York for the past week have found manufacturers heavily overstocked with seasonable merchandise (due to the extreme warm weather of the last few weeks). We consumed many phenomenal underprice purchases. Manufacturers in need of funds sacrificed their most desirable garments at a fraction of actual worth. We offer Richmond women this highgrade apparel at tremendous savings, beginning Saturday morning.

sphere of life with which she had any connection.

Mrs. Hanger was a graduate of Science Hill, at Shelbyville, Ky., and also of the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston. She loved music and never failed to avail herself of every opportunity to add improvement to her tal-member of the Cecilian Club of Richmond since its early inception, and never failed to contribute her full quota to its advancement and well-being, and the message she brought in song will linger in the hearts of those who loved her.

She was a woman of most exquisite taste, this being exemplified in her every surrounding. Her home, Arlington, attractive and beautiful in every appointment, was but a reflection of her own artistic nature, and her charming personality wherever she went created for her an atmosphere of friendliness.

Her loyalty to her friends was one of her most striking characthose things which would add to their pleasure in every possible way, and her unselfishness was recognized and thoroughly appre-

Stories of Great Scouts

By Elmo
Scott
Watson

© Western Newspaper Union.

LEWIS WETZEL, "DEATH WIND" OF THE DELAWARES

Many of the great scouts did not become Indian fighters until they were men, but Lewis Wetzel started early. He killed his first Indian when he was only thirteen years old. Wetzel was born in Virginia in 1752. His father moved to the present site of Wheeling, W. Va., and was killed there by the Indians before the eyes of his sons. Lewis swore eternal enmity against all redskins.

One day while he and his brother were roaming in the woods they were attacked by Indians. Lewis killed one of the savages and the next instant was hit by a bullet which carried away a piece of his breast bone. Both boys were taken captive. That night while the Indians slept, Wetzel worked loose the things which bound him and then fastened his brother.

After the boys had fled for about a mile they discovered that their mocassins were torn to shreds. Leaving his brother in hiding, Lewis returned to the Indian camp and, undetected by the sleeping savages, robbed them of two pairs of mocassins as well as a gun and some powder and lead.

The next morning the Indians were hot on their trail and soon were close upon them. As the Indians approached, the boys stepped out of the trail into a clump of bushes, allowing their pursuers to speed past, and then they followed. Soon they heard the Indians coming back and again they stepped into the bushes and hid. The Wetzel boys played this dangerous game of hide-and-seek several times before they finally eluded the savages and returned in safety to their home.

When Lewis Wetzel grew older he crossed over into Ohio and soon became one of the best-known scouts in the country.

Wetzel was called "The Death Wind" by the Delaware Indians whom he hated particularly. More than once a Delaware warrior trembled with fear as he heard a shrill, moaning cry echoing through the forest, for it usually was followed soon afterward by a shot from the scout's deadly weapon which ended the redskin's life.

In his later years Wetzel lost the respect of many people because he began killing all Indians he met, whether hostile or friendly, and several times he was imprisoned for shooting members of peaceable tribes. In his last days he became a lonely, bitter old man until death came to him in 1808.
